A BILL

To Be Entitled

An Act relating to mining claims and rights, amending Article 5395 of Chapter 5 of Title 86 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, relating to the time of payment of rentals on mining claims awarded under Article 5397 of Chapter 5 of Title 86 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and providing royalties to be paid the State from minerals produced upon such claims; and amending Article 5397 of Chapter 5 of Title 86 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, providing for forfeiture of rights of locator or owner of mining claims by a land commissioner upon default of payment of any sum due within thirty (30) days after sum is due, or for making false reports or failing or refusing access to records, or knowingly failing or refusing to give correct information, or to furnish Land Office correct reports; providing such forfeited claims and minerals shall be subject to sale in manner provided by law for sale of minerals; providing for setting aside forfeiture and reinstating claims and all rights thereunder under certain conditions; suspending for a period of one year from the effective date of this Act all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith, and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Article 5395, Chapter 5, Title 86, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Article 5395. The owner of each claim shall pay fifty (50) cents per acre annually in advance after the award and during the month of each succeeding January of each year thereafter; provided, that such owner may at his option pay such fifty (50) cents per acre due in the month of January, A. D. 1934, within one year from the effective date of this Act without suffering the forfeiture of rights provided for in Article 5397, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925. In addition to rental payments, the owner of each claim shall pay a royalty of one-sixteenth of the value of the production of the minerals upon such claim as shown by the net smelter, mill, mint, or refinery returns or of the gross sums arising from the sale of the ore or products from the claim and received by the owner. Royalties on existing mineral claims shall be paid on the basis provided for in the law under which the lease or claim was issued. Royalty payments arising from the sale of ores, minerals or other products shall be due quarterly in January, April, July and October for the quarters preceding."

Sec. 2. Article 5397 of the 1925 Revised Civil Statutes of Texas is hereby amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Article 5397. Forfeiture of Rights. If the locator or owner of any claim obtained under the provisions of this law or operating under this law shall fail or refuse to make the payment of any sum within thirty days after it becomes due, or if such one or an authorized agent should knowingly make any false return or false report concerning production, mining or development, or if such one should fail or refuse the proper authority access to the records pertaining to the operations, or if such one or an authorized agent should knowingly fail or refuse to give correct information to the proper authority, or knowingly fail or refuse to furnish the Land Office all correct reports required by this law, the rights acquired under the location or claim shall be subject to forfeiture by the Commissioner, and he shall forfeit the same when sufficiently informed of the facts which authorize the forfeiture, and the minerals covered by such location and claim shall be subject to sale in the manner provided for the sale of minerals under the present laws. Such forfeiture may be set aside and all rights theretofore existing may be reinstated at any time before the rights of another intervene, upon satisfactory evidence of future compliance with the provisions of this law."

Sec. 3. Laws providing for payment of rental on mineral claims during the month of January, 1934, are suspended for a period of one year from the effective date of this Act as provided in Section 1 hereof, but upon the expiration of said one year term, the suspension shall be of no further force and effect and all rental payments upon such mineral claims shall be thereafter paid as provided by law without further extension of payment.

Section 4. The fact that an extraordinary financial emergency and depression exists within the State and elsewhere, and that many citizens are about to lose their mining claims, on which they have paid rentals for several years and done valuable and expensive assessment work, due to their inability at this time to pay their rentals, and by reason thereof imminent danger exists whereby citizens may be subject to distressing losses and lose the accumulations of a life time, and the fact that great and irreparable wrong and injury will be done by the State against its own citizens unless immediate relief as aforesaid hereby be granted, create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule, requiring bills to be read on three several days, be suspended, and the same is hereby suspended, and this Act shall take effect from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

Sec. 17. It is understood and expressly provided that should any clause, section or provision of this Act be hereafter held invalid for any reason that such invalidity shall in no way affect any other provision of the Act.

Sec. 18. The fact that a very brief time now remains for said Commission to prepare for the holding of a Texas Centennial celebration on a scale commensurate with the glorious history of our State, the patriotism of our people and the progress of the past century, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity, requiring the suspension of the constitutional rule, which requires all bills to be read on three several days in each House, and said rule is hereby suspended, and that this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

Reason For Vote.

Mr. President: I vote no on S. B. No. 22, the centennial bill, for the sole reason that same carries an appropriation of $100,000.00 of public funds, and I cannot approve that procedure under the existing Treasury deficit. I am in hearty accord with the idea of an appropriate celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Republic and State of Texas.

G. This provision shall take precedence over all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith, and all laws and parts of laws in conflict with this provision are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict. The provisions of this subsection shall also apply to all bonds issued and sold under Chapter 37, Acts of the First Called Session of the Forty-third Legislature.

Public Accounts, as evidenced by the endorsement upon the back thereof, and after such registration the principal thereof shall be payable only to the registered owner, his legal representatives or assigns. After being registered such bonds may again be made payable to bearer by endorsement thereon, and such bonds shall continue subject to registration and to payment to bearer at the option of the holder. The coupons attached to said bonds shall be and continue payable to bearer.

Sec. 3. The Texas relief bonds, herein issued, shall be sold by the Texas Bond Commission, heretofore created by Chapter 37, Acts, First Called Session of the Forty-third Legislature, in the following manner:

The Texas Relief Commission, as created by said Chapter 37, Acts, First Called Session of the Forty-third Legislature, shall make application to the Texas Bond Commission for the sale of such part of said seven million, seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($7,750,000.00) of bonds as, in its judgment, is needed to procure State money necessary for the relief of the unemployed and needy, and upon the filing of said application, said Texas Bond Commission shall sell the amount of bonds so requested by the Texas Relief Commission. Upon further application of the Texas Relief Commission, said Texas Bond Commission is hereby directed to sell additional bonds in the amount so applied for. Upon the sale by the Texas Bond Commission of any part of the seven million seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($7,750,000.00) of Texas relief bonds, as herein provided for, the said bond commission shall by order provide that said installment of bonds shall mature over a period of eight years beginning with March 1, 1936, and shall mature approximately in the same proportions as set out in subsection "C" of Sec. 2, hereof. The order of the bond commission designating the maturities shall be entered upon the minutes of the commission. In no event shall the total amount of the bonds sold under authority of this Act exceed a total face value of seven million seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($7,750,000.00). No bonds, as provided for hereunder, shall be sold from and after the fifteenth day of September, A. D., 1935. It is further provided that no officer, or officers, board, commission or any person whatever shall borrow from any government, or from any source, or permit advances of any amount whatsoever, for any of the purposes stated in Section 51-a, Article 3, of the Constitution, in anticipation of the future issuance of bonds, and any such loan or advance shall be void, and shall create no obligation against the State of Texas, and any officer of the State of Texas or any officer or member of any board or commission of the State of Texas participating in such attempted loan or advance shall be guilty of high crimes and misdemeanors.

Sec. 4. The bonds authorized to be sold by the Act shall be sold by the Texas Bond Commission at a time and place to be designated by the bond commission, and after advertisement, published in three (3) newspapers of general public circulation in the State of Texas, which publication shall be made once at least one week prior to the day said bonds are offered for sale, the advertisements specifying date, amount, and maturities of the bonds, the rate of interest, and such other provisions as the said commission may deem proper. Said commission may in its discretion publish a similar advertisement in one newspaper of general circulation outside the State of Texas. Offers for said bonds shall be made upon sealed bids filed with the secretary of said bond commission and accompanied by such earnest payment as the bond commission may direct; the said bond commission shall reserve the right to reject all bids, but in the event a bid is accepted, the State Treasurer, on order of the Texas Bond Commission, is directed to deliver said bonds to the purchasers when he shall have received, for the credit of the State of Texas, current funds of the United States to the extent of the highest bid made for said bonds, which shall in no event be less than par and accrued interest. In the event bids are not received for the purchase of all or any part of said offer of bonds or in the event the bond commission rejects all bids for any or all of said offer of bonds said commission may readvertise said bonds as above provided, or may in its discretion proceed to sell at private sale all or any part of same to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, or to any other governmental agency or to any person, firm or corporation for cash and in such manner as provided by the bond commission; provided, however, that none of said bonds shall be sold for a price less than the par value thereof and accrued interest thereon. No commission, directly or indirectly, shall be allowed upon the sale of said bonds or any of them.

The funds other than accrued interest and/or premium received from the sale of said bonds shall be credited by the State Treasurer to the "Relief Bond Fund." Any amount received as accrued interest and/or premiums from the sale of said bonds shall be placed to the credit of a fund designated as "The Texas Relief Bond Sinking Fund, Second Series." Both of said funds shall be deposited in accordance with the depository laws of the State of Texas for the deposit of other State funds.

Sec. 5. Texas relief bonds, first and second series, shall be redeemed and retired in the following manner:

In obedience to Section 51-a of Article 3 of the Constitution, which places upon the Legislature the duty to make such appropriations as are necessary to pay the interest and principal of such bonds as the same becomes due, there is hereby appropriated out of the General Revenue Fund of the State of Texas and/or from funds which would accrue to the General Revenue Fund of the State of Texas, accruing from sources other than a tax on real property, for each and every year that any Texas relief bonds, first series, are outstanding, a sum sufficient to pay the principal and interest on such bonds as the same accrues or becomes due. From and after the effective date of this Act and until all Texas relief bonds, first series, have been retired, the Treasurer of the State of Texas, as he receives any and all monies (from sources other than taxes on real property) for the use and benefit of, and which under the present law would go to the general revenue fund of the State, shall first, before such monies go into the general revenue fund, annually set up out of such monies a special and separate fund in anticipation of and sufficient to meet all interest and maturity requirements on said bonds for the fiscal year next succeeding, which said fund shall be deposited to the credit of "Texas Relief Bonds Sinking Fund, First Series." Said "Texas Relief Bonds Sinking Fund, First Series," shall be kept by said State Treasurer as a separate fund out of which the interest on said Texas relief bonds, first series, shall be paid, and out of which said bonds shall be redeemed and retired as they become due, and the same is hereby appropriated for each and every year while such bonds or any of them are outstanding, for the purpose of paying the interest and principal of said bonds as the same accrues or becomes due, it being the intention of the Legislature, and the Legislature does hereby set apart, preserve and appropriate an adequate fund to pay off and discharge the principal and interest of said bonds as and when the same becomes due and payable.

In obedience to Section 51-a of Article 3 of the Constitution which places upon the Legislature the duty to make such appropriations as are necessary to pay the interest and principal of such bonds as the same becomes due, there is hereby appropriated out of the general revenue fund of the State of Texas, and/or from funds which would accrue to the general revenue of the State of Texas, accruing from sources other than a tax on real property, for each and every year that any Texas relief bonds, second series, are outstanding, a sum sufficient to pay the principal and interest on such bonds as the same accrues or becomes due. From and after the effective date of this Act and until all Texas relief bonds, second series, have been retired, the Treasurer of the State of Texas, as he receives any and all monies (from sources other than taxes on real property) for the use and benefit of, and which under the present law would go to the general revenue fund of the State shall first, before such monies go into the general revenue fund, annually set up out of such monies a special and separate fund in anticipation of and sufficient to meet all interest and maturity requirements on said bonds for the fiscal year next succeeding, which said fund shall be deposited to the credit of "Texas Relief Bonds Sinking Fund, Second Series." Said "Texas Relief Bonds Sinking Fund, Second Series," shall be kept by said State Treasurer as a separate fund out of which the interest on said Texas relief bonds, second series, shall be paid, and out of which said bonds shall be redeemed and retired as they become due, and the same is hereby appropriated for each and every year while such bonds or any of them are outstanding, for the purpose of paying the interest and principal of said bonds as the same accrues or becomes due; it being the intention of the Legislature, and the Legislature hereby does set apart, preserve and appropriate an adequate fund to pay off and discharge the principal and interest of said bonds as and when the same becomes due and payable.

Sec. 6. The State Treasurer is hereby directed to pay the interest and principal of said Texas relief bonds, first and second series, as and when the same become due from the respective funds set aside for that purpose.

Sec. 7. If, on the twenty-sixth of August, A. D., 1935, all of the bonds which have been issued herein have not been sold, it shall be the duty of the State Treasurer, in the presence of the other two members of the commission, to destroy by burning any unsold bonds and any interest coupons appended thereto. After said bonds shall have been destroyed by burning as above provided, it shall be the duty of said members of said commission to make a certificate in writing to the effect that said bonds were destroyed, in accordance with the provisions of this law, giving the date on which said bonds were so destroyed by the State Treasurer, and file said certificate in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Texas. As the bonds mature and are paid they shall be forthwith destroyed and report of thereof filed in like manner. The bonds cancelled in Section 1 of this Act shall be forthwith burned by the State Treasurer and report thereof filed in the manner herein above provided.

Sec. 8. If at the time the Texas Relief Commission, has ceased to function as a body there shall remain with the State Treasurer any sums of money which have been derived from the sale of any of said bonds, it shall be the duty of said State Treasurer to transfer said money out of said special account to the "Texas Relief Bond Sinking Fund, Second Series."

Sec. 9. Any owner or holder of any of the bonds herein issued, or any owner or holder of any of the bonds heretofore issued by the Legislature shall, in the event of default in the payment of said bonds, or of any interest payment thereon, have the right to institute a suit, or suits, in any court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County, Texas, for the purpose of enforcing the payment thereof. Service of process on the Attorney General shall be sufficient in any such suit against the State.

Sec. 10. The proceeds of the sale of any and all bonds sold under the provisions of this Act are hereby appropriated to the Texas Relief Commission for the biennium, ending August 31, 1935, for the purposes and subject to the restrictions as set forth in this Act.

Sec. 11. The funds derived from the sale of the bonds herein issued shall, except as herein otherwise specifically provided, be administered by the same agencies, in the same manner and for the same purposes as provided for in Chapter 37, Acts of the First Called Session of the Forty-third Legislature.

Sec. 12. The funds belonging to the "Relief Bond Fund" shall be disbursed by warrants drawn by the Comptroller of Public Accounts on said fund in the payment of allocations made and approved by the Texas Relief Commission, which approval shall be reflected by the minutes of the Texas Relief Commission, signed by its chairman, and attested by its secretary, and filed with the Comptroller of Public Accounts. In case of emergency the Commission may authorize the disbursement of funds by the director under such rules and regulations as may be promulgated by the commission and as may be evidenced by the minutes of said commission; provided that such warrants shall be issued by the Comptroller of Public Accounts against vouchers signed by the director, or by someone authorized by him in writing and countersigned by the secretary of the Texas Relief Commission, or by someone authorized by him in writing, in amounts not exceeding in the aggregate the amount allocated by the Texas Relief Commission to any payee, as evidenced by its minutes signed, attested, and filed, as hereinbefore provided.

Sec. 13. Out of the fund herein appropriated there shall be paid the expense for printing, lithographing and/or engraving the bonds, and the signing of same as well as all expenses incident to the sale thereof and the purchase of the books and supplies incident to keeping the records therefor.

There is hereby appropriated out of the general revenue the sum of one thousand two hundred dollars ($1,200.00) for the year ending August 31, 1934, and two thousand, four hundred dollars ($2,400.00), or as much thereof as is necessary for the year ending August 31, 1935, for salary of one record clerk in the office of State Comptroller.

There is also hereby appropriated out of the General Revenue Fund of the State of Texas the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) for the year ending August 31, 1934, and ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00), or as much thereof as is necessary for the year ending August 31, 1935, for the State Auditor's department for the purpose of auditing the expenditure of the Texas Relief Commission and furnishing each member of the Legislature and the press a quarterly statement of such expenditures.

Sec. 14. The Texas Relief Commission shall meet on the call of the chairman, vice-chairman or a majority of the members thereof, and the members of the Texas Relief Commission shall serve without compensation; provided that after the effective date of this Act the members of said commission shall be allowed and paid all necessary transportation expenses and the flat sum of ten dollars ($10.00) per day as expenses while away from home in the discharge of their duties.

Members of the Texas Relief Commission and county relief boards and employees of said commission and boards are hereby prohibited from becoming candidates for public office, and if any such person becomes a candidate he shall forthwith resign or be subject to removal.

The Texas Relief Commission is hereby authorized to employ an executive secretary and to fix the compensation of said secretary.

Sec. 15. The county relief boards acting with the commissioners' courts of the county or with the governing body of any municipal or quasi-municipal corporation or other political subdivision of the county are authorized to formulate plans and specifications for the construction of such lateral roads and other work projects as may be needed in said county, provided the construction of same will be feasible and practicable from the standpoint of utilizing labor by employed persons in said county. All projects for which relief bonds are to be expended shall be submitted to and approved by the Texas Relief Commission. The application to the commission shall contain such data as is necessary to show the details of the project undertaken and shall be accompanied by plans and specifications showing the way and manner in which the work is to be performed. Before any application is approved, it shall be made to appear to the State Relief Commission that the following essential facts exist, to-wit:

1. That the project presents a practical opportunity to provide work for unemployed people of the county or subdivision making the application; and at least ninety per cent (90%) of the funds for such project will be used for labor.

2. That the project can be constructed with local unemployed labor eligible for employment on relief projects.

3. That the project will not require the expenditure of an inequitable portion of the relief funds when compared with the needs of the whole State and the amount of money available for relief and work relief purposes.

4. That the project could not be accomplished as a public work project on account of the demonstrated inability of the county, municipality, or other political subdivision concerned to finance its part of the project under the requirements of the Public Works Administration.

If a county, municipal, or quasi-municipal corporation, or other political subdivision of the county is allotted funds to be used for the construction, repair, or maintenance of lateral roads or any other public project then and in such event, said commissioners' court or the governing body of such municipality, quasi-municipality, or other political subdivision of the county shall have the direct supervision and control of the expenditures of such funds, allotted to it, subject, however, to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the State Relief Commission, and in the expenditure of such funds, the commissioners' court or other governing body may act free from the county board in all matters except as to the employment of labor which shall be supplied by the county board. At least ninety per cent (90%) of the State funds granted by this section shall be used for the purpose of paying for labor of unemployed persons eligible for relief work. And an amount not to exceed ten per cent (10%) of the funds granted by this section for each project shall be available for the purpose of procuring materials, tools, equipment and supplies, provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting the use of any funds received from the United States Public Works Administration for the furnishing of materials, tools, equipment, supplies and/or for other purposes.

Sec. 16. The Texas Relief Commission is hereby authorized to use not more than two and one-half per cent ($2\frac{1}{2}\%$), or so much thereof of the Texas Relief Bonds, Second Series, for the payment of hospital services. Provided, however, that the amount authorized to be expended for such purposes shall not exceed two dollars and fifty cents (\$2.50) per day per patient. Such hospitalization shall be authorized only in emergency cases where special care is essential to the preservation of life and health, and same cannot be otherwise adequately administered.

Sec. 17. The Texas Relief Commission is hereby authorized to use not to exceed three per cent (3%), or so much thereof as may be necessary, of the proceeds of the Texas Relief Bonds, Second Series, for the hospitalization of indigent tubercular patients in recognized established tuberculosis sanatoria (other than in the State Tuberculosis Sanatorium) in the State; provided, that the applications and requirements for admission and treatment to such sanatoria shall conform to the rules and regulations at present established by law for admission to the State Sanatorium save and except that the prohibition against negro patients shall not apply to this Act; and the superintendent of the State Tuberculosis Sanatorium, subject to the approval of the State Board of Control, is authorized, empowered and directed to select and designate such sanatoria for the treatment of such patients, and to enter into contracts with such sanatoriums for the care of such patients; provided further the amount authorized to be expended for services, including board, laundry, room, medicine and medical attention, shall not exceed the sum of three dollars ($3.00) per day per patient. Provided further that of the funds herein allocated there is appropriated the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) or so much thereof as may be necessary to be expended under the direction of the superintendent for an assistant or assistants and clerical help and to pay office and traveling expenses necessary for the purpose of carrying this Act into effect.

Sec. 18. The Relief Commission is hereby directed to promulgate rules and regulations for the purchase of supplies for relief and requirement for bids on same.

Sec. 19. None of the funds herein appropriated nor any of the funds arising from the sale of the bonds shall be used to pay the salary of any employee of the Texas Relief Commission who is related by blood or marriage within the second degree to the head of any department of the State Government, or to any member of the Legislature, or to any member of the Texas Relief Commission, and no person so related shall be employed by the Texas Relief Commission.

Sec. 20. Any person or persons, charged with the duty or responsibility of administering, disbursing, auditing, or otherwise handling the relief funds provided for in this Act, and who shall knowingly misappropriate any such relief funds, or who shall knowingly make a false report concerning same, or who shall unlawfully distribute or expend any funds provided for in this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be confined in the State penitentiary for a term of not less than one year nor more than five years.

Sec. 21. Any person or persons, who shall knowingly make any false statement or misrepresentation in order to procure any sum or sums of money or other relief provided for by law shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars ($10.00) nor more than fifty dollars ($50.00), or be confined in the county jail for a period of not exceeding three (3) months, or by both such fine and jail sentence.

Sec. 22. If any section, clause or sentence in this Act should ever be held to be unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the remaining portions of this Act.

Sec. 23. The fact that there are now in Texas thousands of citizens of this State who are unemployed and in destitute circumstances, and the fact that no adequate means have been provided by the State of Texas for their relief, and the fact that the people of the State of Texas have recently voted in favor of authorizing the Legislature to issue certain bonds for the relief of the destitute and necessitous people of Texas create an emergency and an imperative public necessity demanding the suspension of the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three separate days in each house, and the said rule is hereby suspended, and this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

A BILL

To Be Entitled

An Act amending Article 1119 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, of 1925, so as to make its provisions apply to all incorporated cities or towns incorporated under the General Laws of the State of Texas, and to limit the earnings of persons, companies or corporations, coming within the provisions of said article to an amount not exceeding a fair return upon the fair value of the property used and useful in rendering its service to the public; which return shall never exceed ten per cent (10%) per annum; repealing all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith; providing if any part of the Act is declared unconstitutional it shall not affect the validity of the remainder of the Act, and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Article 1119 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, of 1925, be amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Article 1119. The governing body of all incorporated cities and towns in this State incorporated under the General Laws thereof, shall have the power to regulate, by ordinance, the rates and compensation to be charged by all persons, companies or corporations using the streets and public grounds of said city or town, and engaged in furnishing water, gas, telephone, light or sewerage service to the public, and also to prescribe rules and regulations under which such commodities shall be furnished, and service rendered, and to fix penalties to enforce such charges, rules and regulations. The governing body shall not prescribe any rate or compensation which will yield more than a fair return upon the fair value of the property used and useful in rendering its service to the public, but which return in no event shall ever exceed ten per cent (10%) per annum.

Sec. 2. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Sec. 3. If any provision of this Act shall be declared to be unconstitutional or invalid it shall not invalidate or affect any other provisions hereof.

Sec. 4. The fact that the Supreme Court of Texas, in a recent decision, has declared invalid and unconstitutional those provisions of Article 1119 authorizing cities of over five hundred (500) population to regulate rates and service of public utilities and those provisions thereof limiting the rate of return to ten per cent (10%), creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each House be suspended, and said rule is hereby suspended, and this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

On motion of Senator Rawlings, the Senate granted unanimous consent to consider the following substitute resolution:

Whereas, The Texas National Bank, of Fort Worth, Texas, a National Banking Corporation, was suspended by the Comptroller on or about January 30, 1930, and is now being liquidated, and prior to such suspension its officers had deposited with the State Treasurer assets of said bank consisting of thirteen thousand ($13,000) dollars of U. S. Treasury Certificates and one hundred twenty-five thousand ($125,000) dollars par value Federal Farm Loan Bonds, as collateral to secure the money deposited in said bank belonging to the State of Texas, which deposit of moneys at the time of the closing of said bank amounted to the sum of sixty-nine thousand five hundred twenty-four dollars and twenty-two cents ($69,524.22), and after the closing of said bank the receiver thereof, in order to recover said assets, paid to the State of Texas said sum of money in full, which payment the depositors in said bank have contended was an unlawful preference granted the State of Texas in violation of the National Banking Act; and

Whereas, Said depositors now claim that the Supreme Court of the United States has recently held in a similar case that such deposit of securities to secure the deposit of public moneys was void and violative of the National Banking Act, and that the moneys so paid to the State of Texas are claimed to rightfully belong to the estate of said bank for ratable distribution among all depositors alike; and

Whereas, Said disputed claim should be in law judicially determined, and the depositors claiming said sum adversely to the State of Texas given the right to have a judicial determination of their rights thereto as against the State of Texas;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of Texas, the House of Representatives concurring, That the consent and permission of the State of Texas be and the same are hereby granted to the said depositors of said bank, and to the receiver of said bank, to institute and prosecute in a court of competent jurisdiction in Tarrant County, Texas, an action or suit to recover the moneys so claimed to have been unlawfully paid to the State of Texas.

A BILL
To Be Entitled

An Act temporarily enlarging the powers of the District Courts of this State to grant continuances and stays of execution in suits to foreclose liens upon real property and to grant restraining orders and temporary injunctions restraining sales of real estate under deeds of trust and other contracts and sales under executions and orders of sale; specifying the necessary allegations for motions for continuance, application for stay orders, and petitions for injunction, and prescribing the contents of orders granting such continuances, stay orders and injunctions; providing for payment of rent on real property involved; prescribing the duration of stay orders, continuances and injunctions and for the renewal thereof and the dissolution thereof; prescribing that such motions and petitions for such relief shall be addressed to the sound discretion of the trial court and that the refusal of such relief shall be reviewable on appeal; providing for the appointment of receivers, for the entry of judgments by agreement, suspending statutes of limitation as to real property for which relief under this Act is invoked; making the several provisions of the Act separate and distinct; extending the Act to guarantors, sureties and indorsers where payment of debt is postponed for party primarily liable; repealing all laws in conflict, and declaring an emergency.

Preamble.

Whereas, The severe financial and economic depression existing for several years past, has resulted in extremely low prices for the products of the farms, ranches and factories and a great amount of unemployment, and almost complete lack of credit for farmers, business men and property owners and a general and extreme stagnation of business, agriculture and industry; and,

Whereas, Many owners of real property by reason of such conditions are unable, and it is believed, will be for some time unable to meet all demands as they may become due for taxes, interest and principal of mortgages on their properties and are, therefore, threatened with loss of such properties through mortgage foreclosure and judicial sales thereof; and,

Whereas, Many such properties have been and are being bid in at forced sales for prices much below what is believed to be their real values, and often for much less than the amount of indebtedness constituting a lien upon the same, thus entailing deficiency judgments against the makers of such indebtedness and liens; and,

Whereas, It is believed, and the Legislature of the State of Texas hereby declares its belief, that the conditions existing as hereinbefore set forth have created an emergency of such nature that justifies and validates legislation for the temporary creation of a period of redemption of property by the owners thereof after the same has been sold at forced sale and for the postponement of forced sales of real estate and other relief of like character; and,

Whereas, The Sovereign State of Texas possesses the right, under its police power, to declare a state of emergency to exist; and,

Whereas, The inherent and fundamental purpose of our Government is to safeguard the people and to promote the general welfare of the people; and,

Whereas, Under existing conditions sales under deeds of trust would prevent fair, open and competitive bidding at the time of such sale in the manner now contemplated by law; and,

Whereas, It is believed, and the Legislature of Texas hereby declares its belief, that the conditions existing as hereinabove set forth have created an emergency of such a nature that justifies and validates changes in legislation providing for the temporary manner, method, terms and conditions upon which forced sales under deeds of trust may be had or postponed, and jurisdiction to administer equitable relief in connection therewith may be conferred upon the district courts of Texas:

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. From the effective date of this Act until February 1, 1935, the judges of the several District Courts having civil jurisdiction in this State, in addition to the powers heretofore exercised, are hereby authorized to grant continuances and stays of execution in all suits instituted for the purpose of foreclosing liens upon real property and to grant writs of injunction restraining the sale of real property under powers created by deeds of trust or other contracts and to restrain sales under executions and orders of sale issued out of any court in this State, when it shall be made to appear by verified motion or petition or from evidence adduced upon a trial on the merits or on ex parte or preliminary hearing as follows:

(a) That the defendant or the relator justly obligated to pay a substantial portion of the indebtedness but is financially unable to pay the same or any part thereof.

(b) That a sale of the incumbered property under deed of trust or under process of the court or a sale of the property seized under execution would result in an unfair, unjust and inequitable financial loss to the defendant or relator; and would not be unfair, unjust and inequitable to the creditor taking into consideration the financial condition of all parties.

(c) That the value of the property involved is substantially in excess of the amount of the debt demanded.

(d) That the property will probably sell for substantially less than its value if a sale under deed of trust, order of sale, or execution is held in due course.

(e) That the defendant or relator will not permit the property to be abused, ill-treated or mismanaged and that such property will be managed, controlled and cared for properly during the pendency of the suit.

(f) That there is a reasonable expectation that the indebtedness will be materially reduced or that a substantial amount thereof will be refinanced within a reasonable time.

(g) That the defendant or rela-

tor will, upon the order of the court, pay into court for application by the clerk upon the indebtedness a sum of money equal to the reasonable value of the income on said property, or, if the property has no income, then the reasonable rental value of the property involved in such suit or sale, or a reasonable part of such income or rental value, as determined by the court.

(h) That neither the indebtedness demanded nor the lien securing same has been renewed or created since May 1, 1933.

(i) That the lien sought to be foreclosed was not created to secure in whole or in part, any indebtedness for money or property procured by misrepresentation, fraud, defalcation or embezzlement.

Sec. 2. When answer is due in a cause of action instituted to foreclose a lien on real property, the defendant may file a verified motion for continuance, embracing allegations covering the details contained in Section 1 of this Act, and the court shall then order the cause continued for such time as may be deemed sufficient to secure such equitable relief but not beyond February 1, 1935.

Sec. 3. When there is a threatened foreclosure of a deed of trust lien that was outstanding prior to May 1, 1933, and that has not been renewed or extended since that time, or when a sale of real property under execution or order of sale is threatened the judge of the district court of the county in which the land or a part thereof is situated, or the judge of the court from which the execution or order of sale is issued, upon presentation of a verified petition embracing allegations covering the conditions contained in Section 1 hereof, may in his discretion issue an order temporarily restraining the sale under the deed of trust, order of sale or execution. In such cases the judge shall set for a hearing on the petition within ten (10) days from the date of the restraining order and shall cause notice to be given to the parties against whom complaint is made in the manner now provided by law, and upon such hearing, if the allegations in the petition are found to be true, the judge may, in his discretion, grant a temporary injunction restraining the sale for a reasonable time, not beyond Feb. 1, 1935. Provided however, that no such injunction or restraining order shall be granted where the property involved is delinquent in the payment of taxes accruing to any subdivision of government for more than two tax-paying years at the time that the petition is presented or at the time the judgment of foreclosure was rendered. Provided further that in event the petitioner shows to the satisfaction of the court that there exists a substantial equity in the property over and above the amount of the indebtedness, interest, and accrued taxes he shall be entitled to enjoy the benefits of this Act and the judge may grant such temporary injunction regardless of the fact that there may be more than two years taxes delinquent on the property the sale of which is sought to be restrained.

Upon said hearing, the court shall determine the reasonable rental value of said property and shall direct and require such mortgagor or debtor to pay all or a reasonable part of such income or rental value into or toward the payment of the indebtedness owing and the court shall further direct and require such payments to be made at such times and in such manner as shall be fixed and determined by the order of the court as under the circumstances may be deemed equitable and just, and that the court shall direct that such rental payment be applied to the payment of taxes, insurance, interest, and to the mortgage indebtedness in the order named.

The provisions of this Act shall not apply to loans due the Federal Government, or any agency thereof, nor to any taxes due the State, county or any political subdivision thereof; provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall specifically apply to suits involving foreclosure of liens for levee district taxes.

Sec. 4. Where it is made to appear to the court that the proper protection of the property and the rents and revenues to be derived therefrom can be better served by the appointment of a receiver to take charge of and manage and control the property during the period for which any cause may be continued or the period for which a stay of execution or an injunction shall be effective, the court shall be authorized to appoint some suitable person to act as receiver of such property and to manage and control the same under the orders of the court and make such distribution of the rents and revenues as the court may direct.

Sec. 5. At the end of the period for which the temporary injunction, or the continuance or the stay of execution, as the case may be, was granted and on further similar application, notice and hearing, the court or judge may in his discretion enter a further order for temporary injunction or continuance or stay in like manner and upon the same conditions as contained in Sections 2 and 3 hereof. But in no event shall the operation of the original or the subsequent order extend beyond Feb. 1, 1935.

Sec. 6. Upon the showing that the defendant or the relator has failed to comply with the order of the court for the payment of rent on the property involved, or that the conditions of the relator or defendant have changed to such an extent as to make the grounds upon which any continuance, stay order, or injunction was granted inapplicable, the court shall forthwith enter an order setting aside the continuance or the stay of execution, or the injunction and proceed with the trial of the case on its merits, or permit the property to be sold as the case may be.

Sec. 7. The motion for continuance or for stay of execution or the petition for injunction shall be addressed to the sound discretion of the trial court and the action of the court in refusing to grant any such relief as herein authorized shall not be final and shall be assigned as error on appeal.

Sec. 8. No guarantor of an indebtedness, nor indorser nor surety for the payment thereof, nor any person primarily liable thereon, the collection of which has been enjoined or postponed by reason of the provisions of this Act, shall be required to pay such indebtedness during the injunction or postponement of the suit, nor shall the obligations of such guarantor, indorser, or surety in any way be impaired or lessened by reason thereof, nor shall the creditor be obligated to pursue any remedy against such guarantor, indorser or surety during the continuance of such injunction and/or postponement of suit.

Sec. 9. The period from February 15, 1934 to February 1, 1935, shall not be included in computing any period of limitation under the laws of this State with reference to liens on real property and the debts secured thereby, provided the provisions of this Act have been invoked by the record owner of such real property.

Sec. 10. Nothing herein shall be held to prevent or limit the right of any court to enter any judgment by agreement of the parties.

Sec. 11. The provisions of this Act are hereby declared to be distinct and separable. If any section, paragraph, sentence or clause hereof shall be found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid the decision of such court shall not affect the validity of any other section, paragraph, sentence or clause.

Sec. 12. All laws and part of laws in conflict with any of the provisions of this Act are hereby suspended during the effective period of this Act, but not repealed and this Act shall terminate and be of no further force and effect on and after Feb. 1, 1935.

Sec. 13. The fact that under existing laws forced sales are had under deeds of trust and vendor's liens at which tracts of real estate are sold at prices greatly below their real and equitable value, and the fact that such sales work inequities and undue hardships upon the owners of such real estate, and the further fact that an extraordinary financial emergency and depression exists within this State and elsewhere, and that many citizens are threatened with the foreclosure of liens upon property, and by reason thereof imminent danger exists whereby citizens may be subjected to distressing losses, and the fact that great and irreparable wrong and injury will be done unless immediate relief as provided herein be granted, create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended, and the same is hereby suspended and this Act shall take effect from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

Ed Rider,

Press Room, Capitol, Austin Tex.,
When your telegram about the proceedings in the Senate relating to me came to my desk I was out of the City. Upon reading it this morning I wish to give you the salient facts the Texas Roads Association has three paid employees and its total annual expense is now less than fifteen thousand dollars and I doubt if any state wide organization of the kind has ever been operated on so small an amount with a few exceptions amounting I am sure to less than a hundred dollars. The Chronicle or I have paid all of my own expenses and I draw no salary there was a growing sentiment to divert highway revenues to other things and some of us who had spent years in the interest of road building felt that the Texas Highway System with all of the progress attendant upon it was imperiled unless a public demand that highway revenues be used for highway purposes could be awakened and it was with that thought that the association came into existence I was very much interested that Will Marsh of Dallas be made president of the association I told him that my experience was such that in my opinion the president of the association should not be burdened with raising the money with which to defray the expenses and that if he would accept the presidency I would undertake to raise the money after considering it for some time and discussing it with others Will said that if I would accept the presidency he would undertake to raise the money and I was not to be concerned with the finances of the association this arrangement was carried out and I have had nothing to do with raising money for the association.

Regards,

W. O. HUGGINS.
